

Revolution Pamphlet

Womens March to Versailles 1789

Directions:

Create a multi-page pamphlet, using one of the “templates” you’ll find on weebly or Google classroom.

Using your 5.2 Reading Guide and information from Chapter 16 of Strayer’s textbook, create a “Revolutionary Pamphlet” that has the following components.

Cover Page <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Name of the revolution ● Images of important people, symbols, and/or events 	Page 2-3 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Relevant bullet points of information and images that show the following: ● Causes of the revolution ● Goals of the revolution ● Consequences of the revolution ● Written thesis statement that answers the following prompt: Analyze the causes and effects of the _____ Revolution. 	Page 4-5 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Relevant bullet points of information and images that show the following: ● Historical changes throughout and immediately after the revolution ● Historical continuities throughout and immediately after the revolution ● Written thesis statement that answers the following 	Page 6 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Author, title, and key quotes of one revolutionary document. ● MEHAPPY analysis of this document. ● Write a definition of revolution based on what you learned about this revolution. ● Written thesis statement that answers the following prompt: Evaluate the extent to which your revolution
---	--	--	--

		prompt: Analyze the changes and continuities of the _____ Revolution.	was truly 'revolutionary.'
--	--	---	--

Revolution Options:

The French Revolution	The American Revolution	The Haitian Revolution	The Latin (Spanish) American (Creole) Revolutions
Annissa, Parker	Owen, Fiona	Libby, Mia	Julian, Alex, Tyler
Kayleigh, Hunter, Ava	Madison, Sam H.,	Nich, Erin	Jack, Grace
Lauren, Breken	Sammi, Desiree	Ava, Natasha	Ashley, Dexter, Emma