

Introduction to Economics
Ed Cash—Revised 8/11/2019

In this course, students will examine the concepts related to macroeconomics as well as explore Financial Intelligence (FI), arguably the most important skill one needs for independence. Students will navigate their way through markets, credit, and mortgage products. They will explore the concepts of supply and demand and their influence on daily life. They will evaluate the role of the United States as a leader in economic development around the world. We will PRACTICE... ...how to individually take responsibility for our learning. ...civil discourse that includes listening and responding with reason and respect. Reasoned discussion and debate may include a variety of legitimate answers. ...strategies concerning how to structure an argument and how to use evidence in order to understand complex issues. Ground Rules for Ensuring a Civil Conversation One of the hallmarks of a democracy is its citizens' willingness to express, defend, and perhaps reexamine their own opinions, while being respectful of the views of others. To ensure a civil conversation... <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Show respect for the views expressed by others, even if you strongly disagree.</li><li>● Be brief in your comments so that all who wish to speak have a chance to express their views.</li><li>● Direct your comments to the group as a whole, rather than to any one individual.</li><li>● Don't let disagreements or conflicting views become personal. Name-calling and shouting are not acceptable ways of conversing with others.</li><li>● Let others express their views without interruption. Your Dialogue leader will try to give everyone a chance to speak or respond to someone else's comments.</li><li>● Remember that a frank exchange of views can be fruitful, so long as you observe the rules of civil conversation.</li></ul> These ground rules were developed by the American Bar Association. https://www.americanbar.org/groups/judicial/american_jury/resources/dialogue_on_the_american_jury/ground_rules/ Three Rules <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Technology may be used in class only with my permission.</li><li>2. Students need a 3-ring binder with three sections:<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>a. Class Work and Homework</li><li>b. Tools</li><li>c. Graded Work</li></ol></li></ol>	What is one idea in the course description you don't understand? How well do you express your views? How well do you listen to others? What questions do you have about these three rules?
---	--

3. It is the student's responsibility of reminding me of missing work due to absences or other reasons.

Gradebook Category Weights & Late Work Policy

- 5% PPBE/Character Grade
- 10% Formative (e.g. hw, classwork, exit tickets)
  - You may not turn in formative assignments late. You may drop the the 2 lowest grades if you are a junior and 1 low grade if you are a senior.
- 20% Final exam
- 65% Summative (e.g. quiz, unit exam, essay, project)
  - Unit exam
    - You will have at least 2 opportunities to demonstrate mastery that includes at least one chance to make-up a poor grade.
    - The re-do must be completed by an assigned date.
  - Essay, project, lab write up, or long term assignment
    - You will not have a chance to re-do these assignments. The late policy for these assignments is as follows:
      - Late 1-5 school days: 10% deduction per day
      - Late 6-10 school days: up to 50% credit possible
      - Late after 10 school days: no credit possible

Weebly

You will find class information, class materials, and assignments you may have missed at my Weebly site at <https://ecashdhs.weebly.com/>

turnitin.com

You must join our class in turnitin. The Enrollment Key is demon. Your Class ID is 21847568

Communication:

Parents and students may reach me in one of the following ways: n

1. Via email at ecash@durangoschools.org.
2. Call me at school at 259-1630 (2242).
3. My prep hour is 3rd period, or students may meet with me...
  - a. during lunch on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays
  - b. after school for sure from 3:20-4:30 on Tuesday and Thursdays.
  - c. after school on Wednesday and Friday (most of the time)
  - d. I will not be available during lunch on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

What questions do you have about these new policies?

Were you able to access my site?

Were you able to sign up for turnitin?

What is the best way for you to communicate with me?

Please do not detach this signature section.

Teacher Signature:

---

Ed Cash

Parent Signature:

---

Student Signature:

---

Please Print Student Name Here: